

DTV MUAY THAI GUIDE

A simple overview of the Destination Thailand Visa route through Muay Thai training.

9-MONTH MUAY THAI TRAINING

THB 45,000

9 MONTHS

DTV AT A GLANCE

5-year multiple-entry visa

Up to 180 days per entry

A further 180-day extension may generally be available through Thai Immigration

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- Unlimited Muay Thai group classes
- Full use of the gym - free weights & machines
- Sauna & cold plunge
- Use of the boxing room
- Private 1-to-1 sessions available separately

TRAINING TIMES

08:00-10:00 | 16:00-18:00

Accommodation and meals are not included.

DOCUMENTS WE PROVIDE

Once your 9-month training is booked, Battle Conquer can provide:

- Letter of Acceptance
- Paid invoice
- Certificate from the Ministry of Sport
- Owner ID

These documents support your DTV application under the Thai Soft Power / Muay Thai category.

CURRENT APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS

Requirements can vary by Thai embassy or consulate. Current guidance includes:

- THB 10,000 visa application fee
- Proof of at least THB 500,000 (or equivalent) in a bank account
- Recent bank statements meeting the requirements of the mission handling your application
- Criminal record / police clearance certificate
- Proof of citizenship or legal residence in the country where you apply

IMPORTANT - WHERE TO APPLY

From 31 August 2026, applications can no longer simply be submitted from a neighbouring country where you are only visiting. Apply through the Thai Embassy or Consulate covering your country of citizenship or legal residence, and be prepared to provide proof of that residence.

Always check the current requirements of the specific Thai mission where you will apply, as supporting-document rules can differ.

READY TO APPLY?

Book your 9-month Muay Thai training with Battle Conquer Pattaya. Once booked, we can prepare the supporting documents listed above.

Visa approval is determined by the relevant Thai authorities.

Battle Conquer provides training-related supporting documents but cannot guarantee visa approval.